CORRECTION

MISSOULA--

Michael Coonrod, a senior majoring in music at the University of Montana, will present a piano recital at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday (Oct. 26) instead of Tuesday (Oct. 19) in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The program on Oct. 26 will feature works by Bach, Beethoven, Brahms and Debussy and is open to the public without charge.

Coonrod's recital partially fulfills the requirements for the Bachelor of Music degree in performance.

In addition to his study at UM under Lucien Hut, Coonrod has attended summer training centers at Aspen Music School, Aspen, Colo., and the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich.

The Missoula native has won several music awards in competition and he has appeared throughout the Northwest in both solo recitals and as a soloist with orchestras.

Another UM music recital has been rescheduled for a later date.

The performance, a faculty violin recital by James White, has been rescheduled from Oct. 19 to Dec. 1 in the UM Music Recital Hall.
